

Title of Article + Proper MLA Citation for Works Cited page	Author(s). "Title of Article." Title of Journal, Volume, Issue, Year, pages. Navigating Genres by Kerry Dirk
Summarize the article -- include your reaction, thoughts, anything to help you remember its claims. 100 to 150 words	Dirk writes about the different genres and talks about how each one can fit under a new and different category of its own. He talks about how the genres are used and how they are approached in different ways as well. He wants students to see the wide spectrum of all genres and understand the meaning behind them.
Define new terms and concepts by quoting or paraphrasing the original author.	Dirk mentions his thought process about how to write down his thoughts that can be helpful to students and exclaims, “In particular, I noted the warm, personal style that was prevalent through every essay; the tone was primarily conversational. And more importantly, I noticed that the writer did not talk as an authoritative figure but as a coach”.
How does this reading connect to other articles from class and/or your own research?	This reading connects to other articles because other articles that we have read so far by guiding and helping students with different writing skills that they can use to better their writing.
Based on the reading, craft one question to act as a springboard for class discussion.	Do the different genres impact different views to students when writing?