

Supporting Non-Tenure Track Faculty

March 21st

Shared Governance is a Feminist Issue

Members of the Task Force for Non-Tenure Track Faculty & Shared Governance will share how experiences from their work highlight the feminist principles that support their efforts and Dr. Neal Hutchens (Professor and Interim Chair of Higher Education) will explore the history of how shared governance, (non)tenure lines, and gender/sex faculty ratios have intersected over the past century.

Noon, Lamar 555

March 28th

Scaffolding the Ivory Tower: A Presentation on Work by the U.S. Government Accountability Office on the Size, Characteristics, Compensation, and Work Experiences of Contingent Faculty

Presenter Michael Kniss will discuss an October 2017 report by the U.S. GAO which examined various issues related to contingent faculty.

1 PM, Lamar 323

Presented by:

*The Sarah Isom Center for Women and Gender Studies and
The Task Force for Non-Tenure
Track Faculty & Shared
Governance*